

May 9-10, 2014
Virginia Beach Oceanfront

PANORAMA CARIBBEAN MUSIC FEST

and Competition for Student Musical Groups

Workshops

Tom Miller (high pans), Ray Holman (middle pans) and Cliff Alexis (low pans) will present sectional workshops concurrently, followed by an interactive engine room clinic and mass steelband performance. These workshops are open to anyone with their own instruments and desire to learn, including bands participating in the festival.

VIRGINIA BEACH CONVENTION CENTER, MEETING SUITE 1
FRIDAY, MAY 9: 10:00 AM - 4:00 PM

Tom Miller Ray Holman Cliff Alexis

400 + participants from 14 states and 3 countries in 2013.
Bring your group in 2014!

Competition and Awards

All ensembles will receive a large trophy which will be presented at the stage following the festival. A medal, if earned, representing the appropriate rating, will be draped around the trophy. Ratings will be awarded as follows:

- Superior Rating: 100-90..... Gold Medal
- Excellent Rating: 89-80..... Silver Medal
- Good Rating: 79-70..... Bronze Medal
- Participation Rating: 0-69..... No Medal
- $1000 Grand Champion Award
- $250 Award for subcategories
- Elementary/Middle School
- High School
- Private Studio
- Community

For more information and to register,
contact PANorama Caribbean Music Fest Coordinator Dave Longfellow at dlongfellow@vafest.org or 757-282-2823
or go online to vafest.org/PAN

Headliner Performances

Victor Provost Sextet
With special guests: Bobby Thomas, Jr. & Rudy Faulkner

24TH STREET OCEANFRONT PARK
FRIDAY, MAY 9: 8:00 - 10:00 PM
SATURDAY, MAY 10: 8:00 - 10:00 PM

Victor Provost Bobby Thomas Rudy Faulkner

More Fun to Enjoy in Virginia Beach!

Busch Gardens
Williamsburg
1-800-343-7946
www.buschgardens.com

Captain Jack's
Pirate Ship Adventures
757-305-9700
www.virginiabeachpirateship.com

Virginia Aquarium & Marine Science Center 757-385-3474
www.virginiaaquarium.com

For more Virginia Beach fun visit www.visitvirginiabeach.com